Daniel R. Palmadesso

Associate

Daniel R. Palmadesso is an Associate in the Corporate/Securities Practice Group at Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP. He has broad experience across a variety of corporate transactional practices, including capital markets, corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions, with a particular emphasis on securities law, including matters involving public and private offerings, periodic reporting, and corporate governance.

Prior to joining the firm, he was an Associate at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP in Manhattan. He represented public and private companies as issuers, underwriters, and trustees for public and private transactions. His clients ranged from Fortune 500 companies to investment banks and emerging market companies in life sciences, technology, financial service, energy, shipping and retail.

Mr. Palmadesso was a Special Assistant District Attorney for the Kings County District Attorney's office, before joining Morgan Lewis, as part of that firm's Public Interest Fellowship Program.

He graduated from University of Michigan Law School in 2009, where he was a Contributing Editor for the University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform. He also participated in the University of Michigan Law School Urban Communities Clinic.

Mr. Palmadesso earned his Bachelor of Science in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University in 2006. While an undergraduate, he interned in the Labor Policy Office of Senator Edward M. Kennedy for the United States Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions and was a staff writer for The Cornell Daily Sun.

Mr. Palmadesso is admitted to practice in the State of New York.

In 2018, he was named to the New York Metro Rising Stars list.
