

Eileen O'Boyle Bitetto

Partner

Eileen O'Boyle Bitetto is a partner and concentrates her practice in the area of real estate tax certiorari law and condemnation litigation. This concentration has, as its focus, issues of real property valuation; particularly the review of assessed valuation—seeking opportunities where taxes may be reduced.

She also represents clients whose property has been acquired, or is about to be acquired, in Eminent Domain proceedings—working to ensure that these owners are adequately compensated for their loss of property.

Ms. Bitetto serves on the Board of Directors of Automobile Club of New York, Inc. which is the regional affiliate of AAA. It is a not-for-profit corporation established 100 years ago to maintain a club for auto users and owners, with the primary purpose of advocating law related to the use, rights, and privileges of such owners/users.

Additionally, she volunteers her time as a mentor with the Lawyers in Kids' Education (“LIKE”) program, which was created by the partners at Certilman Balin. As part of this team, Ms. Bitetto uses “vocabulary enrichment games” and offers a listening ear to help “at-risk” elementary school students with literacy and life.

A member of the Nassau County, New York State and Nassau County Women's Bar Associations, she earned her undergraduate degree in American Studies from St. John's University and her Juris Doctorate from St. John's University School of Law.

In 2012, Long Island Business News named Ms. O'Boyle Bitetto to the list of “Who's Who in Women in Professional Services,” and she has also achieved the highest professional rating by Martindale Hubbell. She is admitted to the New York State Bar.
