

Jodi S. Hoffman

Partner

Jodi S. Hoffman is a Partner in the Real Estate Practice Group at Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP. She has been practicing at Certilman Balin since 1993 and brings a wealth of real estate experience to the firm. She represents clients on Long Island and in New York City in all aspects of real estate law, including, but not limited to, commercial leasing, commercial and residential transactions and lending.

In 1989, she earned her undergraduate degree in political science from Brandeis University, and earned her law degree in 1992 from the Albany Law School of Union University.

A mother of two, Ms. Hoffman volunteers her time to charities that focus on children's issues. Since its inception at the firm, she has served as a mentor in the Lawyers Involved with Kids Education ("LIKE") program, which is affiliated with the Uniondale School District. In this capacity, she mentors fourth and fifth grade students helping them prepare for the New York State English Language Arts examination as well as providing students with the additional support and attention that they may not receive at home. In the past, she has served on the Real Estate Division of the March of Dimes.

Ms. Hoffman is a member of the New York State and Nassau County Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice in the state of New York, and the United States District Court, Eastern and Southern District of New York.
